

Print & Digital Designer

Are you a Rockstar or about to hit the charts? If yes, we want to hear from you!

We're on the hunt for a dedicated, passionate print and digital designer.

We are after... a motivated self-starter who demonstrates strong initiative. You are able to execute projects within brief, transform concepts, push boundaries, tell a compelling story and deliver amazing results – on time and on budget. You are an excellent communicator who prides yourself on your ability to develop and maintain great relationships. You enjoy working independently as well as contributing collaboratively. You have experience working with, and sometimes directing, both designers and developers in a fast paced, ever-changing environment. Importantly, you're a team player who is driven, creative and passionate about all things design.

Desired Skills and Experience

- Able to perform high level project design from concept to completion
- Have worked in a design studio or agency environment
- Able to work on marketing and advertising projects
- Confident in communicating ideas/concepts to clients, business owners, management team and other stakeholders
- Experienced in interpreting complex briefs and developing engaging storyboards
- Competent working across a variety of subject matters and an ability to connect emotionally
- Able to ensure brand consistency throughout various pieces of collateral
- Strong typography & design
- Understanding and experience in UI/UX design
- Ability to manage multiple projects
- A passion and flair for print and digital design, and a portfolio to back this up

Desirable Attributes

- Great attitude
- Passionate & ethical
- Positive contributor to culture
- Energy, enthusiasm and the drive to succeed
- Has a willingness to learn and develop both skills and thinking
- Strong conceptual thinking and the ability to think strategically
- Organised, efficient, effective & accurate
- Great attention to detail
- Results and deadline orientated
- Friendly & professional
- Sense of humour
- The ability to recognise and create beautiful designs, and a love for considered, quality design
- A team player who will thrive in an open collaborative environment

What's on offer

An opportunity to work within a leading, design thinking & integrated communications agency located in Launceston, Tasmania.

With stunning offices in the iconic Chalmers, complemented by a powerhouse creative team and a large diverse client base – we need a person to join our high performing team in delivering a variety of award-winning projects.

Package will be determined by experience and attitude.

How to apply

Apply today to ensure you don't miss out on this opportunity, as we'll assess and action applications as they are submitted.

If you meet the requirements and you're keen to be a part of an industry leader, in a supportive team, working with great clients – we want to hear from you!

Submit the following by hitting APPLY NOW:

1. A little snippet about You
2. Your Resume and a
3. Portfolio of your best work

Alternatively email direct to:

Jodie, Business & Operations Manager, jodie@walkerdesigns.com.au